THE YES FOLLOW-UP VAULT™

Ready-to-use follow-ups for the moments when sales usually disappear - without chasing, pressure or vague "checking in."

24

READY-TO-USE FOLLOW-UP SCRIPTS

5 HIGH-FRICTION MOMENTS

1 DECISION SYSTEM

FOLLOW-UP IS NOT CHASING.

IT IS HELPING A DECISION MOVE FORWARD.

01
RECONNECT
Return to what mattered.

02
CLARIFY
Surface what is unresolved.

03
ADVANCE
Create the next decision.

INTEREST — UNCERTAINTY — CLARITY — DECISION

THE YES FOLLOW-UP RULE

A good follow-up has a job. It should reconnect, clarify or advance - ideally more than one.

01

RECONNECT

Bring them back to the problem, goal or decision they already told you mattered.

"Is [goal] still a priority?"

02

CLARIFY

Surface the real uncertainty: fit, timing, value, trust or an unanswered question.

"What still feels unresolved?"

03

ADVANCE

Give the conversation a clear next move: decide, clarify, revisit later or close the loop.

"Where are you landing?"

THE RULE

NEVER FOLLOW UP JUST TO "CHECK IN."

Every message should give the prospect a reason to respond: context, a useful question, a decision point or a genuinely relevant change.

THE DECISION FLOW

INTEREST > UNCERTAINTY > CLARITY > DECISION

THE AIM IS NOT TO "GET THE YES."

The aim is to help the right prospect reach a clear, informed decision - yes, no or not-now - without leaving good opportunities in vague limbo.

BEFORE YOU SEND ANYTHING

Follow-up works best when the message is calm, specific and anchored in the conversation that already happened.

01 FOLLOW UP FROM CONTEXT

Reference what they said mattered - not your need for an answer.

02 USE AGREED TIMING

If you set a date on the call, respect it. Reliability builds trust.

03 ASK A REAL QUESTION

Give them something specific to answer instead of making them invent the next step.

04 MAKE "NO" SAFE

People answer more honestly when they are not trapped into saying yes.

05 CLOSE LOOPS CLEANLY

Repeated silence is information. End the chase professionally.

06 NO FAKE URGENCY

Deadlines, scarcity and consequences should only be used when they are genuinely true.

STOP SENDING VAGUE FOLLOW-UPS

"Just checking in..."	>	"Has anything changed around [goal], or is there one thing still unclear?"
"Any thoughts?"	>	"Which part feels clear - and which still needs a decision?"
"Bumping this!"	>	"We said we'd reconnect today. Where are you landing?"

TONE SWITCH

Warm or direct can both work. Vague rarely does.

WARM "Hey [Name], I wanted to come back to what you said about [goal]..."

DIRECT "[Name], we agreed to reconnect today. Where are you landing?"

AFTER THE CALL

Follow-up starts before the call ends: agree on the next step, then follow through exactly when you said you would.

01 THE CLEAN RECAP

AFTER THE CALL

WHEN TO USE

Use immediately after a strong sales call when you have agreed on a decision date.

THE JOB

Reinforce their own reasons for buying and make the next step explicit.

SEND / ADAPT

Great speaking today, [Name]. From our conversation, the priority is [goal], and the biggest thing getting in the way is [problem]. Based on that, [offer] is designed to help you [outcome]. As agreed, take until [date] to decide. I'll check back then - and if anything needs clarifying before that, send it over.

WHY IT WORKS

It anchors the follow-up in their words, not your pressure.

PERSONALIZE

[goal] [problem] [date]

02 THE DECISION-DATE FOLLOW-UP

AFTER THE CALL

WHEN TO USE

Use on the exact day you agreed to reconnect.

THE JOB

Ask for a real decision instead of sending a vague reminder.

SEND / ADAPT

Hey [Name], we said we'd reconnect today after you had space to think. Where are you landing on [offer]? If there is one thing still unclear or holding the decision back, tell me and we can address it directly.

WHY IT WORKS

It respects the agreed timeline and invites clarity.

PERSONALIZE

[offer] [decision date]

03 THE VALUE RECONNECTION

AFTER THE CALL

WHEN TO USE

Use when the conversation has drifted into features, logistics or price.

THE JOB

Reconnect the decision to the outcome they said mattered.

SEND / ADAPT

Before you decide, I want to bring it back to what you said mattered most: [desired outcome] and the cost of staying at [current situation]. The question isn't whether [offer] has enough features; it's whether this is the right vehicle to help you move from [current] to [desired]. If you want, I can clarify anything around that.

WHY IT WORKS

It restores the original business case without inventing urgency.

PERSONALIZE

[desired] [current] [offer]

FROM INTEREST TO DECISION

Use these when interest is real but the prospect needs a cleaner path to a decision.

04 THE OPEN DOOR

AFTER THE CALL

WHEN TO USE

Use when there was interest but no clear next step was set.

THE JOB

Reopen the conversation without chasing.

SEND / ADAPT

Hey [Name], I enjoyed our conversation. You seemed genuinely interested in [outcome], but we didn't set a next step. If this is still something you want to explore, I'm happy to pick the conversation back up. If priorities have shifted, that's completely fine too - clarity either way helps.

WHY IT WORKS

It gives them an easy route back in and makes no equally acceptable.

PERSONALIZE

[outcome] [context]

05 THE CLARIFIER

I NEED TO THINK

WHEN TO USE

Use in the moment when they say they need to think.

THE JOB

Find out what they actually need to think about.

SEND / ADAPT

Of course. Before we leave it there, what specifically do you want to think through - fit, timing, investment, or something else? I'd rather give you useful space to decide than leave you with an unanswered question.

WHY IT WORKS

It separates genuine reflection from an unnamed objection.

PERSONALIZE

fit timing investment

06 THE DECISION-SPACE FOLLOW-UP

I NEED TO THINK

WHEN TO USE

Use after the amount of thinking time they requested.

THE JOB

Find out what became clearer and what is still unresolved.

SEND / ADAPT

Hey [Name], you wanted a few days to think through [offer]. I'm checking back as agreed. What became clearer for you - and what, if anything, still feels unresolved?

WHY IT WORKS

It invites reflection instead of forcing a yes/no too early.

PERSONALIZE

[offer] [time agreed]

WHEN "THINKING" STAYS VAGUE

The goal is not to defeat the objection. It is to make the uncertainty specific enough to decide.

07 THE MISSING QUESTION

I NEED TO THINK

WHEN TO USE

Use when the prospect still sounds uncertain but cannot name why.

THE JOB

Surface the one unanswered question underneath the hesitation.

SEND / ADAPT

Sometimes 'I need to think' means there's a question we haven't actually named yet. If that's true here, what is the one thing you'd need to feel clear on before making a decision?

WHY IT WORKS

It makes uncertainty specific enough to work with.

PERSONALIZE

[their language]

08 THE NO-PRESSURE CLOSE

I NEED TO THINK

WHEN TO USE

Use when the conversation has been sitting in limbo.

THE JOB

Create a clean decision without using pressure.

SEND / ADAPT

I don't want this sitting in limbo for either of us. Based on what you know now, does this feel like a yes, a no, or a not-now? All three are useful answers. I'm happy to help with any final question before you decide.

WHY IT WORKS

It lowers defensiveness while still asking for clarity.

PERSONALIZE

yes | no | not-now

09 THE EXPECTATION CLARIFIER

PRICE HESITATION

WHEN TO USE

Use when they say, 'It's more than I expected.'

THE JOB

Understand whether the issue is cash flow or perceived value.

SEND / ADAPT

That makes sense. When you say it's more than expected, is the hesitation mainly about available cash flow, or are you still weighing whether the value justifies the investment? Those are different conversations, so I want to respond to the right one.

WHY IT WORKS

It diagnoses before defending or discounting.

PERSONALIZE

cash flow | value

PRICE WITHOUT PANIC

Do not rush to defend, discount or over-explain. Diagnose the hesitation first.

10 THE VALUE RESET

PRICE HESITATION

WHEN TO USE

Use when price has become the whole conversation.

THE JOB

Reconnect the investment to the business problem and desired change.

SEND / ADAPT

You mentioned that [problem] is currently costing you [time/revenue/opportunity]. The investment only makes sense if solving that is valuable enough to you. Would it help to walk through what specifically you expect to change if we work together?

WHY IT WORKS

It moves the decision from sticker price back to value.

PERSONALIZE

[problem] [cost] [outcome]

11 THE PAYMENT-STRUCTURE CONVERSATION

PRICE HESITATION

WHEN TO USE

Use only when a legitimate payment option exists.

THE JOB

Solve cash-flow timing without reducing the value of the offer.

SEND / ADAPT

If the fit is right and the obstacle is timing of cash flow rather than the decision itself, we do have [payment option]. I don't want to make the offer cheaper by shrinking the value, but we can look at a structure that makes the investment workable.

WHY IT WORKS

It separates affordability structure from discounting.

PERSONALIZE

[payment option] [terms]

12 THE NO-DISCOUNT RESPONSE

PRICE HESITATION

WHEN TO USE

Use when they ask for a lower price without a change in scope.

THE JOB

Hold the offer confidently without becoming defensive.

SEND / ADAPT

I completely understand wanting to make the numbers work. We don't reduce the fee simply to close the sale, because the scope and support stay the same. If the investment isn't right right now, I'd rather be honest about that than force the fit.

WHY IT WORKS

It protects positioning and makes a clean no acceptable.

PERSONALIZE

[scope] [support]

THE GHOSTING SEQUENCE

Three steps only: reconnect, clarify, close the loop. More messages do not automatically mean better follow-up.

13 RECONNECT

GHOSTING

WHEN TO USE

Use as the first follow-up after a previously active conversation goes quiet.

THE JOB

Reopen around the priority, not the missing reply.

SEND / ADAPT

Hey [Name], bringing this back to the top because you'd said [goal] was a priority. Is that still something you want to solve now?

WHY IT WORKS

It asks about relevance rather than demanding attention.

PERSONALIZE

[goal]

14 CLARIFY

GHOSTING

WHEN TO USE

Use if the first reconnect gets no answer.

THE JOB

Give them an easy way to explain what changed.

SEND / ADAPT

Quick follow-up with a real question rather than another bump: has something changed around [goal], or is there something about the offer you're unsure about? Either is useful for me to know.

WHY IT WORKS

It offers two clear reasons for silence without assuming either.

PERSONALIZE

[goal] [offer]

15 CLOSE THE LOOP

GHOSTING

WHEN TO USE

Use after multiple relevant follow-ups with no response.

THE JOB

End the chase professionally and keep the door open.

SEND / ADAPT

I haven't heard back, so I'm going to close the loop on my side rather than keep chasing you. If [goal] becomes a priority again, you're welcome to reach out and we can see what makes sense then.

WHY IT WORKS

It restores boundaries while preserving the relationship.

PERSONALIZE

[goal]

WHEN THE GHOSTING HAS CONTEXT

A silence after requesting the link is different from silence after a proposal. Treat the moment you are actually in.

16 GHOSTED AFTER ASKING FOR THE LINK

GHOSTING

WHEN TO USE

Use when they explicitly requested the enrollment or payment link.

THE JOB

Rule out a technical issue and clarify intent.

SEND / ADAPT

You asked me for the enrollment link, so I just want to check that nothing got in the way technically. Here it is again: [link]. If you changed your mind, no problem - just let me know so I don't keep the conversation open.

WHY IT WORKS

It is practical, direct and gives them permission to be honest.

PERSONALIZE

[link]

17 GHOSTED AFTER A YES

GHOSTING

WHEN TO USE

Use when they verbally committed but the agreed next step never happened.

THE JOB

Find out whether the commitment changed.

SEND / ADAPT

Hey [Name], we left the call with a yes and [next step] still outstanding. Before I assume anything, can you let me know whether you're still moving forward or whether something changed after the call?

WHY IT WORKS

It references the commitment without guilt or accusation.

PERSONALIZE

[next step]

18 GHOSTED AFTER A PROPOSAL

GHOSTING

WHEN TO USE

Use when a proposal has been sent and the prospect disappears.

THE JOB

Turn vague silence into one of three actionable states.

SEND / ADAPT

Following up on the proposal I sent on [date]. Rather than ask 'any thoughts?', I'd love to know which of these is true: you're ready to move forward, there's something you want to clarify, or timing has changed. Reply with whichever is closest.

WHY IT WORKS

It reduces the effort required to respond and creates clarity.

PERSONALIZE

[date] [proposal]

NOT RIGHT NOW

A not-now is only worth revisiting when you understand what has to change - and when.

19 THE TIMING CLARIFIER

NOT RIGHT NOW

WHEN TO USE

Use when they say, 'Not right now.'

THE JOB

Understand what has to change for timing to become right.

SEND / ADAPT

That makes sense. When you say 'not right now,' what specifically needs to be different for the timing to become right - budget, capacity, another priority, or something else?

WHY IT WORKS

It turns vague timing into a concrete future condition.

PERSONALIZE

budget | capacity | priority

20 THE FUTURE-DATE FOLLOW-UP

NOT RIGHT NOW

WHEN TO USE

Use when they gave you a genuine future condition or timeframe.

THE JOB

Revisit exactly when the original constraint should have shifted.

SEND / ADAPT

Hey [Name], when we spoke in [month], you said [condition] needed to happen before revisiting this. Has that shifted? If [goal] is back on the table, happy to reopen the conversation.

WHY IT WORKS

It follows the prospect's own timeline rather than manufacturing one.

PERSONALIZE

[month] | [condition] | [goal]

21 THE STAY-WARM MESSAGE

NOT RIGHT NOW

WHEN TO USE

Use during a genuine nurture period when you have something relevant to share.

THE JOB

Stay useful without repeatedly selling.

SEND / ADAPT

Saw [relevant resource/idea] and thought of the conversation we had about [goal]. No pitch attached - I thought this might be useful as you work through it. If the timing changes, you know where to find me.

WHY IT WORKS

It creates relevance without disguising a sales push as value.

PERSONALIZE

[resource] | [goal]

REOPEN THE RIGHT WAY

Reopen because something relevant changed, not because the lead has been sitting in your CRM.

22 THE RE-OPEN

NOT RIGHT NOW

WHEN TO USE

Use when the original timing reason may no longer apply.

THE JOB

Check whether the priority is still live before reselling.

SEND / ADAPT

Hey [Name], circling back because when we last spoke, the timing wasn't right for [reason]. You'd said [goal] still mattered. Is that still true - and if so, does it make sense to revisit the conversation now?

WHY IT WORKS

It starts with relevance, not assumption.

PERSONALIZE

[reason] [goal]

23 THE CHANGED-CIRCUMSTANCE FOLLOW-UP

NOT RIGHT NOW

WHEN TO USE

Use when something genuinely relevant has changed since you last spoke.

THE JOB

Reopen because the facts changed, not because you need the sale.

SEND / ADAPT

When we spoke, [constraint] made this a not-now. Since then, [relevant change]. I'm not assuming that changes your decision, but it felt relevant enough to reopen the conversation. Want to look at it again?

WHY IT WORKS

It gives the follow-up a legitimate reason to exist.

PERSONALIZE

[constraint] [change]

24 THE DORMANT-LEAD RESET

NOT RIGHT NOW

WHEN TO USE

Use with an older conversation where you no longer know whether the goal is active.

THE JOB

Qualify the opportunity again before investing more energy.

SEND / ADAPT

It's been a while since we spoke about [goal]. I'm doing a quick reset of open conversations, and I wanted to ask one direct question: is [goal] still a priority this quarter? If yes, we can pick it up from there. If not, I'll close the loop.

WHY IT WORKS

It replaces endless nurture with a respectful re-qualification.

PERSONALIZE

[goal] [quarter]

THE FOLLOW-UP DECISION MAP

Use this when you are not sure whether to follow up, what to say, or when to stop.

DID THEY GIVE YOU A DECISION DATE?

→ YES — FOLLOW UP WHEN YOU SAID YOU WOULD.

NO

DID THEY NAME A CONCERN OR HESITATION?

→ YES — CLARIFY THE CONCERN - DO NOT GUESS.

NO

WAS THERE GENUINE BUYING INTENT?

→ NO — NURTURE. DO NOT FORCE A SALES FOLLOW-UP.

NO

HAVE YOU ALREADY SENT MULTIPLE RELEVANT FOLLOW-UPS?

→ YES — CLOSE THE LOOP.

NO

IS THERE A GENUINE FUTURE CONDITION OR DATE?

→ YES — SCHEDULE THE REVISIT AROUND THAT CONDITION.

YES

FOLLOW UP ON THE AGREED DATE / CONDITION

GOOD FOLLOW-UP SOUNDS LIKE

- Specific, not vague
- Relevant, not anxious
- Direct, not pushy
- Easy to answer
- Comfortable with yes, no or not-now